[Toronto, Ontario] – October 28, 2009 – Ste. Anne's Spa has added Condé Nast Johansens to their long list of accolades for 2010. SpaFinder and Spa Magazine have also acknowledged Ste. Anne's popularity amongst Canadian travellers with their Readers' Choice Awards for 2009.

Condé Nast Johansens is a highly regarded travel resource and an international mark of distinction. It is the leading guide and website used by today's independent traveller as a trusted source for hotels, spas and venues for both leisure and business in the UK, Europe and the Americas. Each hotel is approved for recommendation following an annual inspection by one of their experienced inspectors. If a property does not reach Condé Nast standards, it is rejected. This maintains the integrity and quality of the Condé Nast brand. Ste. Anne's Spa is one of only a handful of Canadian properties to be chosen by Condé Nast Johansens for 2010.

SpaFinder Inc., the global spa resource, has announced that Ste. Anne's Spa has been named among the top-10 best spas in the world for the categories Canada's Favourite Spa (fourth consecutive year), Best For Going Solo and Best Boutique Spa in its seventh-annual SpaFinder Readers' Choice Awards. Based on votes submitted by readers of SpaFinder publications, including Spafinder.com, the awards represent the most comprehensive consumer assessment of the global spa market available today. Over 360,000 votes—a new record for the Reader's Choice Awards—were cast for favourite spas by continent, country, region and across 27 categories.

Ste. Anne's Spa has also been named as SPA Magazine's Silver Sage Readers' Choice winner in the category of Favourite Destination Spa and Favourite Resort/Hotel Spa in Canada. More than 100,000 votes were cast this year for SPA Magazine's third annual Silver Sage Readers' Choice Awards.
